Thanks to Bishop Muench, there will be a number of "Station Churches" set up throughout the Diocese during Lent so Catholics can find any number of locations for pre-Easter confession. On five consecutive Wednesday evenings—February 24th, March 3rd, 10th, 17th and 24th—the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered from 6-8 pm at 17 regionally located parish churches. If you have been reluctant to come to the Sacrament or have been away from the church for some time, or you just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon confession, this is a great opportunity to receive the Sacrament of Penance. If you're anxious about preparing for the sacrament, the priest confessors will be there to welcome and direct you. We'll also have brochures in the back of all churches of our diocese to guide you in preparing for the Sacrament, in addition to helpful information in The Catholic Commentator and on our diocesan website: diobr.org. There is no more powerful way to "jump start" your spiritual life this Lent than by receiving the grace of Reconciliation! Try any of these locations:

Our Lady of Mercy, Baton Rouge
St. Aloysius, Baton Rouge
St. George, Baton Rouge
Christ the King, LSU, Baton Rouge
St. Pius X, Baton Rouge
St. Paul the Apostle, Baton Rouge
St. Alphonsus, Greenwell Springs
Immaculate Conception, Denham Springs
St. John the Baptist, Zachary

St. Mark, Gonzales
St. Joseph, Paulina
St. Helena, Amite
Holy Ghost, Hammond
St. Mary of False River, New Roads
St. John the Evangelist, Plaquemine
St. Elizabeth, Paincourtville
St. James, St. James
